

HEALTH LAW AND POLICY UNDERGRADUATE CERTIFICATE

Expand on your degree with a Health Law and Policy Certificate. Students from any major or discipline can pick four courses from the list below based on your particular interests in health law. Courses are 3 credits each, fully online, and asynchronous. Courses can be taken in any order and run 6-7.5 weeks.

Contact law-healthcare@arizona.edu for more information.

Spring 1 Term January-March

Law 479B Legal & Regulatory Fundamentals of Healthcare Business
Law 484A Aging in America

Spring 2 Term March-May

Law 415 Health Care Ethics
Law 484B Aging and Social Justice
Law 480 Introduction to Privacy
Law 480B Data Privacy & Cybersecurity in Healthcare

Fall 1 Term August-October

Law 478A Legal & Regulatory Aspects for Healthcare Delivery
Law 484C Technology and Aging: Legal & Ethical Developments
Law 480C Health Information Technology

Fall 2 Term October-December

Law 477 Introduction to Biomedical Informatics
Law 484D Aging and the Law

Summer 1 Term May to June (six week term)

Law 488A Translational Pathways for Medical Devices

Summer 2 Term July to August (six week term)

Law 480A Liability & Regulation of Healthcare Professionals
Law 475D Leadership & Equity in the Life Sciences
Law 480D Telehealth Law & Policy

Visit the Health Law and Policy YouTube Channel for course trailers, student testimonials, and information sessions:
bit.ly/HealthLawCourseTrailers